ACADEMIC REGALIA

The graduation regalia are among the enduring rituals, symbols, and traditions that distinguish education's core values and sustain their perpetuation. The regalia are unifying symbols recognizing the graduates' present accomplishments and connecting them to the past.

The use of academic dress at graduation comes from medieval universities and has been a part of commencement ceremonies in the United States since colonial times. American cap and gown dress and etiquette are designed according to the Intercollegiate Costume Code, established in the mid-1800's.

Our high school graduates wear the traditional mortarboard and gown, with tassels representing our school colors. The tassels are worn on the right and then flipped to the left after graduates receive their diplomas. White tassels signify grade point averages in the top 10% of the senior class.

Honor cords signify a graduate's membership and good standing in a school honor society. The designations include:

International Thespian Society..... Blue and Gold
Latin National Honor Society..... Purple
National Achievers Society..... Red, Black, and Gold
National Honor Society..... Blue and Gold
National Spanish Honor Society..... Red and Gold
National Technical Honor Society..... Purple and Silver
Sankofa Award Recipient..... Fuchsia
Société Honoraire de Français Red, White, and Blue
Tri-M Music Honor Society..... Pink
