

D.C. Swinton

While born in Manhattan, NY, I was raised in Greenville, SC. I am a 2010 graduate of Winthrop University in Rock Hill, SC, with a degree in Environmental Studies. I have run for the South Carolina House of Representatives twice, and was a member of the student-based Palmetto Environmental Action Coalition from 2008-2012. I moved to Chapel Hill in August 2012. I wish to dedicate my life to public service and eventually become the Governor of either North or South Carolina. As a young, presently unemployed candidate, I bring new perspectives that are critical to the betterment of Chapel Hill.
