Town of Carrboro
2018 Biennial Citizen Survey
Executive Summary

The overall results for the Town of Carrboro's 2018 Biennial Citizen Survey were very positive mirroring the results of the 2016 survey with a level of improvement. The respondents continued to give high marks for the level of service provided to them in Carrboro. A total of 400 residents were surveyed and the resulting margin of error was $\pm 5\%$. The telephone survey methodology included listed, unlisted, and wireless numbers in the sampling frame.

The Town Government staff received very high marks for the six service dimensions examined with no marks falling below B. There were high grades for courteous (A-), professionalism (A-), knowledgeable (B+), and helpful (B+). However, the grades for promptness of response and overall quality of customer service declined slightly from B+ to B this year.

The Town's rating for maintenance of streets and roads was relatively good earning a grade of B-. There was a level of improvement as the mean increased this year from 7.26 to 7.39. The major concerns mentioned by the respondents were potholes and flooding on several streets (Greensboro, Main, Homestead, Estes) and the need for sidewalks.

The cleanliness and appearance of public areas earned very solid marks. The grades for parks (A-), greenways (A-), streets (B), median/roadsides (B), and sidewalks (B) were very good. The grade for greenways improved (B+ to A-) while the grade for streets declined (B+ to B). There were several comments given for public areas needing attention especially the appearance of Greensboro Street.

The Carrboro Police Department continued to earn very strong marks from the respondents. The lowest grade given was an A- for this department. The impressive grades for the service dimensions were courteous (A), response time (A), competence (A-), fairness (A-), and problem-solving (A-). The grade for courteous has improved from an A- in 2016. The Carrboro Fire Department earned the highest marks for any department examined in the survey. The Department earned A+ grades for courteous, response time, competence, fairness, and problem-solving. The grade for fairness improved from an A. The Parks & Recreation Department also earned excellent ratings this year. The grades improved for cost or amount of fee (A to A+) and instructor quality (A- to A) while the grades were unchanged for overall experience (A) and ease of registration (A). However, the grades fell for facility quality and program quality both declining from A to A- this year.

The respondents were positive in their rating of Carrboro as a place to live giving the town a mean score of 7.87 (7.95 in 2016) on the 9-point scale. This would equate to a grade of B+ with 95.9% of the responses on the "desirable" side of the scale and only 2.1% on the "undesirable" side. The grade was unchanged from 2016. The respondents also perceived the quality of life in Carrboro as getting better. While most of the respondents (64.8%) perceived the quality of life as unchanged, the percentage on the "better" side of the scale exceeded the "worse" side (28.1% versus 7.1%). In 2016, the percentages were 25.4% versus 3.5%. When asked the most important issue facing Carrboro, the primary response was none/no issues (82 comments). For those naming issues, the key one was controlling growth. There were 52 comments concerning controlling growth/overcrowding along with 27 other comments on overdevelopment. Other key issues were the lack of affordable housing (46 comments), traffic (24 comments), rising cost of living (20 comments), and high taxes (19 comments). The top seven issues remained unchanged from 2016.

The respondents felt very safe in Carrboro in all areas of the town. The means for safe in Carrboro overall (8.29), in their home neighborhood (8.44), and in public places (8.33) were all very high reflecting the high perception of safety. All the means increased from 2016 indicating even higher perceived levels of safety in town.

Several barriers to citizen involvement in local government were examined. The most significant barrier was too busy – don't have time with a mean of 5.75 on a 9-point scale. Other less important barriers were don't know about opportunities (4.62) and timing is inconvenient (4.23). These top three barriers remain unchanged from 2016.

The top five major information sources (in order) used by the respondents were word-of-mouth, street signage, Carrboro's website, television, and Facebook. Other sources also utilized but somewhat less important were radio, Carrboro's email list service, Parks & Recreation Brochure, Twitter, and Instagram. Since 2016, there has been a rise in online and/or social media sources (Carrboro email list service, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, and Next Door). The only exception was Facebook falling from 4th to 5th place as an information source. It was generally the traditional media sources that have declined (Raleigh News & Observer, Independent Weekly, The Daily Tarheel, Government Access Channel, and Herald Sun). The only exception was television that rose from 5th to 4th place overall.

Carrboro has generally been effective in its communication efforts with citizens. The respondents felt largely well informed about government services, projects, issues, and programs that affect them. The mean was 6.10 with 59.3% on the "informed" side of the scale versus 14.9% on the "uninformed" side. There was also a good level of satisfaction with Carrboro making information available to citizens concerning important services, projects, issues, and programs with a mean of 6.49 with 63.8% on the "satisfied" side of the scale versus 11.6% on the "dissatisfied" side. Finally, the respondents were also pleased with the opportunities Carrboro gives them to participate in the decision-making process. The mean was 6.37 with 60.7% on the "satisfied" side of the scale versus 10.9% on the "dissatisfied" side. All these means have improved slightly from 2016 indicating an uptick in communication efforts. Keep in mind, there was a significant number of respondents who indicated they did not seek information and it was their fault for not being informed. This will serve to lower the means for these questions regardless of the town's efforts.

Solid Waste Services continued to receive very high marks; although, two of the grades declined this year. The grades fell for curbside garbage collection (A to A-) and also curbside bulk item collection (A- to B+). While the grades were unchanged for curbside yard waste collection (B+) and curbside loose leaf collection (B+). There were 49.6% (50.9% in 2016) of the respondents who were not aware curbside recycling was provided by Orange County Waste Management and not Carrboro.

As for downtown, there were 89.9% (95.6% in 2016) of the respondents who had visited downtown in the past year. The three major reasons they visited downtown were for restaurants (109 comments), shopping (69 comments) and Weaver Street Market (48 comments). Other prominent reasons included conducting business (30 comments), fun/pleasure (29 comments), events/festivals (29 comments), and Farmer's Market (20 comments). Those who had not visited downtown indicated the major reason was they were too busy (10 comments). The respondents indicated the most effective amenity/activity to bring them downtown would be cafes/restaurants, festivals, Farmer's Market, Summer Streets/Closed Street, outdoor performances, shopping opportunities, and concerts in that order. These are the same top seven as in 2016 except that outdoor performances rated 3rd not the Farmer's Market. When asked about any other suggestions to bring people downtown, the respondents most frequently answered a library and more parking.

The Carrboro focus areas earned generally solid ratings; although, there were some areas of concern. The focus areas will be discussed in order of ranking. The highest level of satisfaction was with the town being effective in keeping Carrboro the best place to live, work, and raise a family. The mean was 7.30 with 81.4% on the “effective” side of the scale. The mean was virtually unchanged from 2016. There were also solid ratings for the overall job the town has done on Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Resources. The mean was 7.57 (7.56 in 2016) with 89.1% of the respondents on the “satisfied” side of the scale and this remains a grade of B. The respondents were generally satisfied with the job the town is doing on environmental protection. The mean was 7.14 (7.29 in 2016) with 84.0% on the “satisfied” side of the scale equating to a grade of C+. However, the grade has declined from a grade of B-. The respondents were also generally satisfied with the job the Town is doing on transportation. The mean was 7.00 (6.98 in 2016) with 82.5% on the “satisfied” side of the scale as the grade remains unchanged at the C+ level. The job the town has done on parking has improved. The mean was 6.74 (6.60 in 2016) with 76.8% on the “satisfied” side of the scale and the grade rose from a C- to a C this year. Finally, the job the Town is doing on planning & development has fallen to the lowest rated of the focus areas. The mean was 6.52 (6.61 in 2016) with 70.6% on the “satisfied” side of the scale and the grade remains a C-.

The respondents rated several new programs/services they would likely be willing to pay for in Carrboro. The highest rated or most likely to pay for would be affordable housing. Other programs/services rated higher (in order) include environmental sustainability, Human Services, fire services, and police services. In 2016, the highest rated program/service was also affordable housing. This was followed by festivals/Open Streets, environmental sustainability, fire services, and police services. The biggest changes were the decline in festivals/Open Streets and the increase in Human Services.

The large majority of respondents who use Wi-Fi perceived no problems with its availability in Carrboro. The only areas mentioned with any frequency as having availability issues were Weaver Street (16 comments), downtown area (6 comments), and Looking Glass Cafe (3 comments).

The Town earned relatively strong ratings for the job they are doing with senior citizens and citizens with disabilities and these means have improved this year. The mean for the job the Town is doing with seniors was 6.90 (6.63 in 2016) with 75.5% on the “satisfied” side of the scale. The mean for the job the Town is doing for citizens with disabilities was 6.91 (6.75 in 2016) with 75.4% on the “satisfied” side of the scale. The grade for both of these would be a C+ rising from a C in 2016. The mean for the job the town is doing for providing affordable housing also improved this year from 5.28 to 5.50 with the grade moving from an F to a D-. Even with the improvement, this would represent the lowest grade the town earned in the survey. Two new areas were rated this year in the survey. First, the satisfaction for the job the town does for developing land in Carrboro earned a mean of 6.37 translating to a grade of C-. Second, the job the town is doing on spacing and density garnered a mean of 6.45 and a grade of C- as well.

In summary, there are 27 graded core Carrboro service dimensions utilizing the grading format of very poor to excellent scaling. The overall mean for all service dimensions was 8.30 (8.24 in 2016). This mean equates to a very impressive grade of A- this year which is unchanged from 2016. Overall, the Town of Carrboro receives an excellent report card with 20 grades in the A range and 7 grades in the B range with no grades in the C range for the core service dimensions. Last year, it was 19 grades in the A range and 8 in the B range.

Town of Carrboro 2018 Biennial Citizen Survey Report

Methodology

The 2018 Town of Carrboro Biennial Citizen Survey was conducted from October 20th through November 18th. BKL Research administered the telephone survey to 400 residents of the Town of Carrboro. This resulted in a $\pm 5\%$ margin of error. Both listed, unlisted, and wireless telephone numbers within Carrboro census tracts were included in the sampling frame and contacted using a random selection process. Approximately 86.3% of the numbers contacted were wireless. A minimum of four callbacks was attempted on each number not screened from the sampling frame. The potential respondents were screened with regards to Carrboro residence and over the age of 18. The average survey completion time was between 18-22 minutes and the refusal rate was 24.7%.

The survey instrument consisted of 41 core questions with related subparts to several of the questions (Appendix A). Respondents were asked to rate the Town Government staff, Police Department, Fire Department, Parks & Recreation programs, streets/roads, perceptions of safety, quality of life, and solid waste services. The survey also examined other issues including information sources, information dissemination, opportunities to participate in decision-making, citizen involvement barriers, and media usage. Another series of questions examined Board of Alderman focus areas in relation to issues including environmental protection, keeping Carrboro the best place to live, transportation, planning & development, parking, and parks & recreation. The respondents were also asked actions that could improve their dissatisfaction with these focus areas. There were questions examining new programs or increased services, downtown amenities/activities and satisfaction with the job the town is doing for senior citizens, citizens with disabilities, affordable housing, land development, and spacing/density. The respondents were primarily asked to use a 9-point scale. There were open-ended questions examining streets/roads and public areas needing attention, most important issues facing Carrboro, reasons for visiting downtown, Wi-Fi availability, internet access, and reasons for choosing to live in Carrboro. The survey also incorporated 13 demographic questions.

Demographic Characteristics of the Sample

The demographic profiles of the sample are exhibited in Figures 1-7. The age profile of the sample is illustrated in Figure 1. A large percentage of the respondents (55.7%) fell under the age of 45 with the largest portion in the 26-35 (25.3%) age category. Figure 2 represents the number of years the respondents have lived in Carrboro. A slightly larger proportion (22.1%) lived in the town 2-5 years while 20.9% for 6-10 years and 19.8% for 11-20 years. There were 13.0% Carrboro natives. When asked how long they plan to stay in Carrboro, 53.3% plan to stay over 20 years while 20.8% plan to stay an additional 2-5 years (Figure 3).

The sample was also a highly educated group illustrated in Figure 4. A large percentage (26.6%) of the respondents earned a four-year college degree with 20.2% a graduate degree and 11.5% a PhD/JD/MD degree. There were also 5.9% currently enrolled in college. In terms of racial breakdown, Caucasians comprised 78.8% of the sample with 10.2% African-American, 4.5% Hispanic, and 3.1% Asian. The income levels of the sample are shown in Figure 6. A high proportion (33.2%) were in the 0-$45,000 income category which is indicative of student population in the area. In addition, 22.5% earned between $45,001-$75,000 while 14.5% earned over $150,000. In terms of gender, 50.6% of the sample were male and 49.4% were female (Figure 7). Most of the respondents (65.7%) resided in single-family homes, 18.7% were apartment dwellers, 11.7% lived in a townhouse/condominium/duplex, and 3.9% in a mobile home/other. Most respondents (64.7%) owned their residence as opposed to renting (35.3%). There were 11.8% who owned rental property in town reflecting 82.6% residential, 8.7% commercial, and 8.7% both. There were 90.1% of the respondents who were registered voters and 71.3% of those voted in the 2017 local elections.

The major reasons the respondents chose to live in Carrboro (by percent of times mentioned) were education/UNC (17.6%), work (15.1%), family (12.1%), consider it home/native (11.3%), atmosphere/community feel (9.1%), and location (8.3%). In 2016, the major reasons were education/UNC (20.3%), atmosphere/community feel (15.2%), work (13.6%), family (11.7%), consider it home/native (6.4%), and location (5.7%). The ordering is essentially the same except atmosphere/community dropped from second to fifth this year.

In terms of internet access, 94.7% of the respondents have access to the internet. Those respondents with internet access were then asked where they had primary access. Most of them had primary access at home (77.7%) followed by cell phone (61.7%), work (44.5%), public place (22.3%), and school (13.7%). These percentages reflect that respondents may answer primary access in more than one location.

Several of the means for the service dimensions in the survey were converted into grades. The mean score was changed into a percentage (using 9 as the denominator) and compared to the grading scale shown in Table 1. This was done for those questions that rated the services on the 9-point scale using the very poor (1) to excellent (9) response set. Although, questions using other similar scaling may be converted for comparison purposes. Grades tend to be easier to understand and use in setting goals.

As previously mentioned, the report will include selected crosstabulations expressly chosen by Carrboro for specific questions in the survey (Appendix B). It is important to exercise caution in the interpretation of crosstabulations. They will act to segment or partition the sample size and in turn, increase the margin of error for a question. It is difficult to interpret crosstabulations with small sample sizes for a specific demographic subgrouping. Keep in mind that any of the crosstabulations with small sample sizes will have exceptionally high margins of error. For that reason, sample sizes of less than 10 respondents in a subgroup will not be discussed. As for terminology, a subgroup would be a specific breakout category in a particular demographic group such as 18-25 age group or $100,001-$150,000 income level.

Table 1. Grading Scale.

The percentages in the tables are rounded off to one decimal place. Due to rounding, this may result in row totals that do not always add up to exactly 100.0%. The demographic recodes for the crosstabulations were age (18-25, 26-55, 56-65, over 65), education (high school degree/some college, college degree, PhD/JD/MD, current student), housing (single family, apartment, townhouse/condo, other), income (0-$45,000, $45,001-$100,000, $100,001-$150,000, over $150,000), and years in Carrboro (0-1, 2-5, 6-10, over 10, native). For clarification, other housing includes mobile homes and any other living arrangement such as assisted living. College degree refers to a bachelor's and master's degree. All the tables are displayed in percentages unless otherwise stated.

Town Government Staff

The performance of the Town Government staff was assessed with a set of seven items or questions. These questions were only administered to those respondents who had contact with the Town Government in the past two years. There were 23.3% (24.9% in 2016) or 93 respondents who indicated they had contact within that time frame. A 9-point grading scale from very poor (1) to excellent (9) was used to rate performance.

The results show continued high ratings for the Town Government staff with no grade falling below the B level. Tables 2-7 placed in descending order of ratings show the means and grades for the individual service dimensions. The mean for courteous of 8.29 remained the highest earned by the staff and this equates to an impressive grade of A-. The mean was unchanged from 2016. In addition, professionalism also earned a grade of A- with a mean of 8.07 mostly unchanged from 2016. The grade for knowledgeable remained at the B+ level with the mean increasing slightly (7.93 to 8.00). The mean for helpful improved slightly from 7.82 to 7.86 this year with the grade remaining at the B+ level. Finally, the means declined slightly this year for promptness of response (7.86 to 7.78) and overall quality of customer service (7.79 to 7.72). This small decrease resulted in the grades falling from B+ to B as both these grades were borderline B+ grades. Overall, the Town Government staff continued to earn very high marks for all the service dimensions from those who had staff contact with four grades remaining unchanged while two grades declined slightly.

The respondents who gave lower scores (below 5) to any of the service dimensions were then asked their concerns or issues with the interaction. There were only 6 total comments with 2 comments focusing on slow response to an issue (Appendix C).

Streets and Roads

The maintenance of streets and roads was assessed using the same 9-point grading scale ranging from very poor (1) to excellent (9). Table 8 shows a solid rating with a mean of 7.39 and a grade of B-. The mean has improved from 7.26 in 2016 while the grade remained unchanged. There were only 4.1% of the responses on the “poor” side of the scale (below 5). It is important to keep in mind that streets and roads can be a challenging area for the town as it continues to experience elevated levels of growth and traffic. This makes this improving score even more notable.

Streets and Roads Needing Attention

The respondents who rated the streets and roads below 5 were asked to name specific streets/roads that need more attention and the problem(s) associated with that area (Appendix D). There were only four streets mentioned more than once. The area with the most comments was Greensboro Street with 6 comments. The major concerns were potholes and sidewalks. Main Street was mentioned 3 times for issues with potholes. Other streets mentioned twice were Homestead Road and Estes Drive Extension. The concerns were generally potholes for both and also flooding on Homestead Road. There were also two comments for most streets in town needing maintenance or being too narrow.

Cleanliness and Appearance of Public Areas

The cleanliness and appearance of public areas was assessed by a set of five questions. The questions examined the cleanliness and appearance of streets, median/roadsides, parks, greenways, and sidewalks. Again, the same 9-point scale from very poor (1) to excellent (9) was used.

The cleanliness and appearance of public areas continued to receive high marks this year. The results shown in Tables 9-13 (placed in descending mean order) indicated the respondents overall were very satisfied with the public areas examined. The cleanliness and appearance of parks received the highest grade of A- with a mean of 8.10. This mean increased slightly from 8.06 with the grade remaining unchanged. There was improvement for greenways as the mean (7.85 to 8.07) and grade increased (B+ to A-) this year. However, there was a slight decline for streets with mean falling from 7.81 to 7.74 resulting in a grade reduction from B+ to B. The mean increased for median/roadsides slightly from 7.68 to 7.71 with the grade remaining unchanged (B). Finally, sidewalks were assessed for the first time this year and earned a solid grade of B with a mean of 7.71.

Public Areas Needing Attention

The respondents who gave ratings below 5 were asked to give specific examples of public areas needing attention (Appendix E). The major concern was for Greensboro Street. North Greensboro was mentioned 3 times for litter, poor appearance, and upkeep. In addition, South Greensboro Street had 2 comments for needing sidewalks and litter issues. Estes Drive Extension earned 2 comments for needing sidewalks. There were also 2 comments that most streets in general need sidewalks and debris removal. The need for more lighting in parking lots also garnered 2 comments.

Police Department

The performance of the Carrboro Police Department was assessed with a set of seven questions. These questions were only administered to those respondents who had contact with the Police Department in the past two years. In this case, it was 22.4% (30.7% in 2016) or 88 respondents. Table 14 indicates most of the respondents had contact with an officer (69.7%), followed by dispatcher (8.3%), animal control (5.5%), clerk (5.5%), and detective (4.6%). There was somewhat less contact with the chief (2.8%). The results in the table may represent multiple contacts with different Police personnel by the same individual.

The Police Department was assessed on five service dimensions (courteous, competence, response time, fairness, and problem-solving) on the same 9-point grading scale from very poor (1) to excellent (9) placed in descending mean order (Tables 15-19). The Police again earned excellent grades this year from the respondents with all the grades A- or better. The highest rating was for courteous. The mean increased from 8.30 to 8.47 improving the grade from A- to A this year. However, the mean for response time declined from 8.54 to 8.43 while the grade remained at the A level. This was the only mean that decreased among the service dimensions. All the other service dimensions earned a grade of A- with means increasing for competence (8.28 to 8.38), fairness (8.23 to 8.33), and problem-solving (8.21 to 8.27). Overall, the Police continued to earn outstanding grades with a level of improvement including one of the grades increasing.

Fire Department

The performance of the Carrboro Fire Department was assessed with a set of six questions regarding contact with the Department and rating their service dimensions. This is the same set of questions used with the Police. These questions were only administered to those respondents who had contact with the Fire Department in the past two years. In this case, it was 10.5% (12.3% in 2016) or 42 respondents. The same 9-point grading scale from very poor (1) to excellent (9) was used.

The results shown in Tables 20-24 (placed in descending mean order) indicate the Fire Department earned superior ratings again that have even improved. In the 2016 survey, all the grades with exception of fairness (A) were at the A+ level. This year the grade fairness also improved to an A+ with the mean increasing from 8.61 to 8.90. In fact, the means increased for all the service dimensions this year and now border on a perfect 9.00. Overall, the Fire Department continued to earn the highest marks for any department in Carrboro.

Parks & Recreation and Cultural Programs

A series of eight questions in the survey specifically examined Parks & Recreation and Cultural programs. Initially, the respondents were asked if they had participated in a Parks & Recreation program and to name the program(s) in which they were involved and the location. The respondents were subsequently asked to rate various aspects of the program(s) including program quality, facility quality, cost or fee, overall experience, ease of registration, and instructor quality. Again, the same 9-point grading scale from very poor (1) to excellent (9) was utilized.

The results showed that 20.6% (15.8% in 2016) or 82 of the respondents indicated someone in their household had participated in a Parks & Recreation or Cultural Program in the past two years. The programs they participated in and locations are shown in Appendix F. The most commonly mentioned programs (in order) were youth/various sports, basketball, Christmas events, July 4th, camps, events/festivals/concerts, children’s events, Open Streets, Music Festival, baseball/softball, tennis, and Spanish classes. These were the only activities mentioned more than twice.

The ratings for the six service dimensions examined for the Parks & Recreation and Cultural programs are shown in Tables 25-30 (placed in descending mean order). All the service dimensions continued to receive very high marks. The highest rated was cost or amount of fee (8.69) earning a grade of A+. The mean and grade have both increased from 8.45 (A) in 2016. However, the overall experience mean has decreased from 8.64 to 8.49; although, the grade remains at the A level. This was also true for ease of registration where the mean decreased (8.62 to 8.49) but the grade remained an A. As for instructor quality, the mean increased slightly (8.38 to 8.42) improving the grade from A- to A. On the other hand, there was a slight mean decrease for facility quality (8.44 to 8.40) and program quality (8.43 to 8.37) resulting in their grades falling from A to A- this year. Overall, Parks & Recreation continued to be very highly rated by the respondents with one A+ grade, three A grades, and two A- grades.

Carrboro Overall as a Place to Live

The respondents were asked to rate Carrboro overall as a place to live using a 9-point scale from very undesirable (1) to very desirable (9). Table 31 indicates that Carrboro was perceived as a very good place to live. Although not in a traditional grading scale format, if the mean (7.87) were converted to a grade, then the rating would be a B+. There were 95.9% of the responses on the “desirable” side of the scale (above 5) versus only 2.1% on the “undesirable” side (below 5). The mean has declined slightly from 2016 when the mean was 7.95 while the grade has remained unchanged.

To gather more insight into any lower ratings, the respondents who answered with a rating below 5 were asked the reason for the low rating. There were only 3 comments and they focused on maintaining roads, high traffic, and high taxes.

The survey included a set of questions that examined the respondent’s personal perceptions of safety in the Town of Carrboro. The survey included three separate questions to assess safety including safe in Carrboro overall, safe in their home neighborhood, and safe around various public places throughout town such as shopping, eating out, or at concerts.

The respondents were first asked how safe they feel in Carrboro overall. A 9-point scale that ranged from extremely unsafe (1) to extremely safe (9) was utilized. The results indicate the respondents perceived a very high level of safety in Carrboro overall (Table 35). The mean was 8.29 with an impressive 98.0% responding on the “safe” side (above 5) of the scale. This included 56.1% who answered they felt extremely safe in town. There was only 0.9% on the “unsafe” side (below 5) of the scale with 1.3% responding average levels for safety (Figure 9). Overall, there was an exceptionally high perception of safety in Carrboro. This represents a slight increase in safe perceptions from 2016 when the mean was 8.24.

Table 35. How Safe Do You Feel in Carrboro Overall.

In this instance, there were 98.2% responding on the “safe” side of the scale (above 5) including 64.4% answering they felt extremely safe in their home neighborhood. The “unsafe” side of the scale (below 5) garnered only 1.3% of the responses with only 0.6% answering they felt average levels of safety (Figure 10). This mean has also increased from 2016 when it was 8.35.

This included 58.6% of the respondents who indicated they felt extremely safe in public places in Carrboro. There were only 0.6% who were on the “unsafe” side of the scale shown in Figure 11. Keep in mind, perceptions of safety in public places tend to earn somewhat lower ratings compared to the home neighborhood and overall in town making these results even more impressive.

In summary, Carrboro was regarded as a very safe place by the respondents for all areas examined. There was a very high percentage of responses in the extremely safe category for all three questions. All the perceptions of safety have even improved from 2016.

How Safe Residents Feel in Carrboro Crosstabulations

Crosstabulations for this set of questions were conducted for age, education, gender, housing type, income, and years in Carrboro. The breakdowns for perceptions of safety in Carrboro overall, home neighborhood, and public places are shown in Tables B7-B24 in Appendix B. Barriers to Citizen Involvement

The survey included a set of questions designed to examine nine barriers to the respondent's involvement in Town Government. The scaling utilized ranged from not a barrier at all (1) to very significant barrier (9). In this instance, a higher mean indicates the source would be more of a barrier to citizen involvement.

Table 38 shows that the most significant overall barrier was too busy – don't have time with a mean of 5.75 with 54.4% of the responses on the “barrier” side of the scale (above 5). The other key barriers to involvement were don't know about the opportunities (4.62 with 40.0% on the “barrier” side) and timing is inconvenient (4.23 with 35.6% on the “barrier” side). These were the only three barriers where the mean exceeded 4.0. Several other potential barriers were less significant hindrances to involvement including topics don't interest me (3.32), issues don't affect me (3.26), don't feel qualified to offer input (2.66), waste of time – one person cannot make a difference (2.44), don't understand government processes (2.29), and don't have transportation (1.80). Compared to 2016, the top four barriers were identical. The only changes were issues don't affect me (6th to 5th) and waste of time – one person can't make a difference (8th to 7th) moved up one spot.

Barriers to Involvement Crosstabulations

Crosstabulations for the barriers to involvement in Town Government were conducted on age, education, gender, housing type, income, and years in Carrboro. The breakdowns are shown in Tables B25-B30 of Appendix B. Instead of examining each demographic variable separately, it would be more informative to examine each barrier in terms of its rating in each of the 23 subgroups with sample sizes of 10 or greater. The information sources will be discussed in order of overall ranking by the total sample. Too busy, don't have time was ranked as the top barrier to involvement rating 1st in 19 of the 23 subgroups. The barrier ranking second overall was don't know about opportunities and this barrier rated 2nd in 14 of the subgroups. This barrier did rank first for over 65 age group, apartment dwellers, other dwellers, and over $150,000 income level. Timing is inconvenient generally ranked third for the total sample and did so in 13 of the subgroups. Its highest ranking was second for 26-55 age group, single family households, over $150,000 income level, over 10-year residents, and native residents. Topics don't interest me was ranked fourth overall and did so in 13 of the subgroups and its highest rating was 2nd for current students. The impact of the remaining barriers was more limited. There were only two of these finishing in the top three barriers for any of the subgroups. Issues don't affect me which rated 3rd for current students and 0-1 year residents. Don't have transportation finished 3rd for over 65 age group.

Information Sources

The survey examined the respondent’s usage of 20 information sources that Carrboro employs to communicate with its citizens. A 9-point scale was used that ranged from never use (1) to frequently use (9). Table 40 indicates the most frequently used information sources (in order) were word-of-mouth (6.65), street signage (5.35), Carrboro’s website (4.79), television (3.60), Facebook (3.46), and radio (3.44). These were the only information sources with a mean above 3.00. Overall, respondents primarily used three main information sources (word-of-mouth, street signage, and Carrboro’s website) to obtain information, especially word-of-mouth. Although, it would seem logical that multiple other information sources invariably impact word of mouth.

The lesser used information sources with means between 2.00 and 3.00 were Carrboro’s email list services (2.94), Parks & Recreation Brochure (2.67), Twitter (2.34), Instagram (2.27), Raleigh News & Observer (2.23), and Independent Weekly (2.09). The least used information sources of those examined in order were stream Board of Alderman (1.29), Herald Sun (1.35), and watch Board of Alderman television (1.43).

There have been changes in information sources since 2016 (Table 41). There were increases in usage for television (5th to 4th), Carrboro email list services (11th to 7th), Twitter (12th to 9th), Instagram (16th to 10th), YouTube (18th to 14th), and Next Door (20th to 16th). Outside of television, note the increases in online and social media as information sources. The information sources that decreased in usage include Facebook (4th to 5th), Raleigh News & Observer (7th to 11th), Independent Weekly (9th to 12th), The Daily Tarheel 10th to 15th), Government Access Channel (13th to 17th), and Herald Sun (15th to 20th). These reflect what would be referred to as traditional media sources mostly print related with the exception of Facebook.

Carrboro’s Efforts at Keeping Residents Informed and Involved in Decisions

A set of three questions examined information dissemination and opportunities for involvement in decision making. The respondents were first asked how informed they feel about town services, issues, and programs that affect them using a 9-point rating scale ranging from not at all informed (1) to very well informed (9). Table 42 indicates the respondents felt relatively well informed about the matters that affect them. The mean was 6.10 with 59.3% on the “informed” side of the scale (above 5) versus 14.9% on the “uninformed” side or below 5 (Figure 12). This mean has improved from 6.00 in 2016 due to the fact the “uninformed” percentages fell from 20.4% to 14.9% this year. Keep in mind, this set of questions generally tend to earn lower means due to the number of respondents who are not seeking information. The respondent’s comments on projects, services, and issues that came to mind when deciding on their rating are shown in Appendix I. There were 52 total comments including 13 comments that the respondent was not actively seeking information along with 2 comments of being too busy. Again, this likely is what contributes to some of the respondents not feeling informed. There were also 13 comments concerning not seeing information made available and 3 comments of don’t know where to find information. In addition, there were 3 comments that information needs to be available in Spanish and 2 comments concerning the loss of the newspaper impacting how informed they feel.

The respondents were next asked their level of satisfaction with Carrboro making information available to them concerning town services, projects, issues, and programs. A 9-point rating scale from very dissatisfied (1) to very satisfied (9) was used. Table 43 indicates a relatively high degree of satisfaction with Carrboro’s efforts with a mean of 6.49 up slightly from 6.45 in 2016. There were 63.8% on the “satisfied” side of the scale with 11.6% on the “dissatisfied” side (Figure 13). The respondent’s comments on projects, services, and issues that came to mind when they decided on their rating are shown in Appendix J. There were 45 total comments and the most common ones were the respondent has not seen information made available (12 comments) and the difficulty in finding information/have to look for it (5 comments). There were also 4 comments indicating the respondent was not actively seeking information. In addition, there were 4 comments indicating the respondent did not know where to look for the information and 4 comments indicating information is available if you look for it. Finally, there were suggestions to make the information available in Spanish (2 comments) and for increased use of social media sources (2 comments).

16	6.45	3.0	1.0	2.7	1.0	31.6	10.4	13.4	18.2	18.7	60.7

Finally, the respondents were asked to rate their satisfaction with the opportunities the town gives them to participate in the decision-making process. The same 9-point satisfaction rating scale was used. Table 44 shows a relatively high degree of satisfaction with a mean of 6.37 with 60.7% on the “satisfied” side of the scale versus 10.9% on the “dissatisfied” side (Figure 14). The mean was 6.35 in 2016. Appendix K shows the respondent’s comments on projects, services, and issues that came to mind when deciding on their rating. There were 37 total comments including 9 comments the respondent was unaware of any opportunities and 6 comments they had no interest in participating.

Figure 14. Opportunities to Participate in Decision Making.

There were also 4 comments calling for the town to provide more information while 4 other comments indicated there were opportunities available. Finally, 3 comments focused on the town not listening to citizens and 3 comments indicating the need for information in Spanish.

Resident Informed and Involved Crosstabulations

The crosstabulations on Carrboro keeping residents informed and involved about government projects, issues, and programs are shown in Tables B31-B42. Breakdowns were performed on age, education, gender, housing type, income, and years in Carrboro (Appendix B). Overall, there was a relatively high degree of consistency across the subgroups. However, those who felt the least informed (lower means) about government projects, issues, and programs were 0-1 year residents (4.62), current students (4.96), PhD/JD/MD degrees (5.52), apartment dwellers (5.53), 0-$45,000 income level (5.56), and 18-25 age group (5.57). In terms of opportunities the town gives to participate in the decision-making process, the least satisfied were 0-1 year residents (5.08) and other dwellers (5.17).

Solid Waste Services

A set of questions was included in the survey to examine the respondent’s satisfaction with four curbside solid waste collection services including garbage collection, bulk item collection, yard waste collection, and loose leaf collection. A 9-point scale from very dissatisfied (1) to very satisfied (9) was used to rate these curbside collection services. The solid waste services are discussed in order of ratings from highest to lowest mean rankings. The respondents were initially asked if they were aware that curbside recycling was provided by Orange County Waste Management and not the Town of Carrboro. There were 49.6% (50.9% in 2016) of the respondents who were not aware of this fact.

There was a very high level of satisfaction from the respondents who used curbside garbage collection. The mean was an impressive 8.22 (Table 45). Figure 15 shows the percentages on the “satisfied” side of the scale (above 5) were 96.4% with only 1.2% on the “dissatisfied” side (below 5). This was the highest mean for any of the curbside collections. However, the mean has fallen from 8.46 in 2016 largely due to the decline in very satisfied percentages (67.3% to 56.7%). Although not in a traditional grading format, this mean would convert to a grade of A- declining from an A in 2016.

Year	Mean	Very Dissatisfied 1	2	3	4	Neutral 5	6	7	8	Very Satisfied 9	% Above 5

The town continued to earn very good marks for their curbside bulk item collection. This year, the mean for this collection service was 8.03 from the respondents who used the service (Table 46). Figure 16 shows there were 90.7% of the respondents were on the “satisfied” side of the scale. While the percentages on the “dissatisfied” side of the scale were only 5.8%. However, this mean has also fallen from 2016 when it was 8.22 as the “satisfied” side of the scale declined (94.6% to 90.7%). The bulk item collection mean would convert to a grade of B+ this year declining from an A- in 2016.

16	8.22	1.8	0.0	1.8	0.9	0.9	3.6	6.3	21.6	63.1	94.6

The respondents were also satisfied with the town’s curbside yard waste collection from the respondents who used this service. Although ranking somewhat lower than garbage and bulk item curbside services, the mean for this collection service was still very high at 7.88 (Table 47). Figure 17 shows there were 88.2% of the responses on the “satisfied” side of the scale versus only 4.5% on the “dissatisfied” side of the scale. However, this mean has also declined slightly from 2016 when it was 8.03. The grade this year would convert to a B+ which would be unchanged from 2016.

Finally, the respondent’s level of satisfaction with curbside loose leaf collection was rated highly by the respondents. The mean represented a very strong score at 7.84 (Table 48). Note the percentage on the “satisfied” side of the scale was 88.8% with only 5.9% on the “dissatisfied” side (Figure 18). The mean was virtually unchanged from 2016 (7.83). The mean for loose leaf collection would convert to a B+ which was the same as 2016.

Overall, there was a high level of satisfaction for all the curbside solid waste services with a slight decline including two of the grades falling from 2016 for garbage collection and bulk item collection.

Solid Waste Services Crosstabulations

Crosstabulations were conducted for age, education, gender, housing type, income and years in Carrboro for the set of solid waste curbside services (Appendix B). The crosstabulations for the four curbside collection services are shown in Tables B43-B66. A large majority of the means were very high and consistent across the subgroups. The only means below 7.25 were 2-5 year residents (7.21) for curbside bulk item collection. As for curbside yard waste collection, there were somewhat lower means for 2-5 year residents (7.10). Finally for curbside loose leaf collection, the only lower means were for over 2-5 year residents (7.16) and over 65 age group (7.24). Keep in mind, only subgroups with sample sizes of 10 or more are discussed.

Downtown Carrboro

A set of questions was included in the survey asking the respondents how Carrboro could create a more vibrant downtown area. The respondents were first asked if they had visited downtown in the past year and 89.9% (95.6% in 2016) indicated they had visited the area. Those who had visited downtown were then asked what drew them to downtown (Appendix L). There were 525 total comments (respondents may give more than one reason) and the key reason was restaurants with 109 total comments. In addition, shopping (69 comments) and Weaver Street Market (48 comments) were important draws to downtown. Other reasons included conducting business (30 comments), fun/pleasure (29 comments), events/festivals (29 comments), and Farmer’s Market (20 comments). The top five reasons in 2016 were restaurants, Weaver Street Market, shopping, everything, and events/festivals. Those who had not visited downtown were then asked why (Appendix M). There were 34 total comments and the key reasons included too busy (10 comments), parking (8 comments), and no reason (6 comments).

The respondents were then asked to rate how effective various amenities/activities would be in bringing them to downtown Carrboro. A 9-point scale was used from not likely at all (1) to extremely likely (9). The survey examined a total of 18 different amenities/activities. Table 49 shows cafes/restaurants (6.67) would be the most likely amenity to attract the respondents to downtown. Festivals (6.15), Farmer’s Market (5.96), Summer Streets/Closed Street (5.95), outdoor performances (5.84), shopping opportunities (5.79), and concerts (5.57) were also effective draws. Other amenities with slightly less effectiveness were grocery store (5.37), ice cream/yogurt shop (5.18), bars/pubs (5.15), additional art exhibition space (5.06), and public art (5.00). The amenities with the lowest means were pet shop (4.32), working artist studio space (4.70), and historical walking tour (4.74). There were 43 responses given to the “other” category for amenities/activities not mentioned (Appendix N). The most frequent were library (5 comments) and more parking (3 comments).

Carrboro Focus Areas

The survey included several questions examining focus areas for the town. The respondents were asked to rate the town’s efforts in six focus areas including environmental protection; keeping Carrboro the best place to live, work, and raise a family; transportation; planning & development; parking; and parks, recreation, & cultural issues. A 9-point satisfaction scale was used for all the areas examined with the exception of a 9-point effectiveness scale used for keeping Carrboro the best place to live, work, and raise a family. The focus areas are listed in order of mean scores.

The highest rated of the focus areas was how effective the Board of Aldermen were in keeping Carrboro the best place to live, work, and raise a family. This question used a 9-point effectiveness scale ranging from very ineffective (1) to very effective (9). The respondents were very supportive of the town’s efforts with a solid mean of 7.30 (Table 51). There were 81.4% of the responses on the “effective” side of the scale (above 5) with only 5.1% on the “ineffective” side (Figure 19). This mean is virtually unchanged from 2016 when it was 7.32. The respondents who gave the town a rating below 5 were asked what actions Carrboro could take to be more effective (Appendix O). There were 25 total suggestions and the two key areas for improvement were the town is too focused on development and not residents (5 comments) and the need for affordable housing (5 comments). Summary and Potential Areas for Improvement

In conclusion, there are 27 graded core Carrboro service dimensions utilizing the grading format of very poor to excellent scaling. The overall mean for the core service dimensions was 8.30 which has improved from 8.24 in 2016. This mean translates to a very impressive grade of A- which unchanged from 2016. Overall, the Town of Carrboro receives an excellent report card with 20 grades in the A range and 7 grades in the B range with no grades in the C range for the core service dimensions. In fact, the lowest grade earned for a core dimension was the B- for the maintenance of streets and roads. Last year, it was 19 grades in the A range and 8 in the B range.

There were some potential areas for improvement for the town. Keep in mind, the ratings for the town are so strong overall that C range grades (average) would again be considered areas of concern. First, the ratings for the job the town has been doing for environmental protection (C+), transportation (C+), parking within the town (C), and planning & development (C-) were somewhat lower than most of the other ratings Carrboro earned. Other concerns were the lower grades for the job the town has been doing for senior citizens (C+), citizens with disabilities (C+), developing land within town (C-), spacing/density (C-), and affordable housing (D-). On the positive side, there has been a level of improvement since 2016 for several of these areas including transportation, parking, senior citizens, citizens with disabilities, and affordable housing. Second, Wi-Fi available appears to have issues in the downtown area, especially around Weaver Street. Third, the open-ended questions revealed a few other suggestions to improve Carrboro. There were concerns with litter and potholes around town, especially Greensboro Street and Main Street. There were also concerns about flooding and stormwater issues. The respondents continue to suggest adding sidewalks, improving bus service, and adding bike lanes. Finally, the most important issues facing Carrboro continued to be controlling growth/development, affordable housing, traffic, and the increasing cost of living.
